Rome, May 2.

ON the 26th of last Month, a great Number of Persons of Quality, and of the Populace, went out of the Gate of the City called Porta Pia, to see a Race run by Barbs, as is usual at this Season annually. The Electoral Prince of Bavaria was invited on this Occasion, and saw the Race from the Villa Bolognetti. The Marquis de Gabrieli's Barb won the Prize, and immediately the Marquis offered to make a Present of him to his Electoral Highness; who excused himself from accepting it, but gave a Purse of Money to the Groom. His Electoral Highness having since taken Leave of the Pope, is gone on to Naples. Cardinal Schrotenbach, attended by many Coaches of the Foreign Ministers, and by all the German Gentry in this City, has notified to the Pope the Birth of the Archduke. The Ambassadour of Portugal has had an Audience of the Pope, relating to the Succours promised against the Infidels. Cardinal Imperiale is gone to Civita Vecchia, to give Orders for the greater Security of that Place.

Venice, May 8. On the 3d Instant Count Coleredo had Te Deum sung for the Birth of the Archduke; but not having made his Entry, did not appear in publick himself. After Mass, his Excellency gave a magnificent Dinner to Count Taxis, and all of the German Nation who are here; and at Night had Musick in his Palace. On the 4th, Sig. Francesco Quirini made his Entry as Procurator of St. Mark; and on the 5th his Brother made his Entry likewise for the same Dignity. 'Tis advised from Corfu, That some of our Gallies are gone to Zant; and that 12 Men of War are to follow them soon, for the Security of that Island. Twenty four Ingineers are expected from Germany, who were taken into the Service of this Republick by General Schulembourg. Sig. Battista Vitturi has fought a Galley of Dulcigno, and sunk her; but his own Vessel being much shatter'd, he has put into Port to refit.

Ratisbon, May 18. Letters from Vienna say, the Imperial Court still expect the Return of the Courier sent to Constantinople, before they take a final Determination touching the War with the Turks: In the mean Time Prince Eugene hastens his Field-Equipage. 'Tis advised from the Frontiers of Hungary, That part of the Imperial Troops are already in the Camps marked out for them; but that the Spring being backward, the Horse suffer for Want of dry Forrage. Lieutenant-General Roth has written a Letter to the Dyet, dated the 11th Instant, in which he represents a-new the Necessity of a Sum of Money being speedily advanced for Repairing the Works of Fort Kehl, part of which have suffered lately by the Violence of the Waters of the Rhine.

Copenhagen, May 19. The Squadron of Men of War commanded by Rear-Admiral Kaas continues at Elsinore. Several Men of War are fitting out in this Port with all Diligence, and will be ready in a few Days. The Swedish Fleet which had lain for some Days past between Dornbusch and Meunen, is now between Ystedt and Bornholm. We have Letters from Norway of the 9th and 11th Instant, which confirm that the Swedish Army has retired to the Frontiers of Sweden, without any considerable Loss.

Hambourg, May 22. Letters from Stetin of the 18th Instant give an Account, that on the 15th in the Morning the Czar arrived there with his Court, accompanied by several Foreign Ministers, and was received and entertained suitably to his Quality, by Major General Borck, who commands in that Place. On the 16th in the Afternoon the Czar's Conſort, and the Dutcheſs of Mecklenbourg arrived there, accompanied by a good Number of Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes. On the 17th at Six in the Evening the King of Pruſſia came thither privately, and had a Conference with the Czar. 'Twas reported that an Expreſs was ſent to the King of Denmark, to invite him to an Interview at Wiſmar. The Count de Croiſſy, Ambaſſadour of France, is preparing to return Home; but 'tis given out, that he will leave his Equipage here, and come back hither himſelf within a few Weeks.

Edinburgh, May 17. The General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland has ſeparated, and a new Aſſembly is appointed to meet on the 2d of May next.

St. James's, May 18. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to direct Letters Patents to paſs the Great Seal, for granting the Dignity of a Baronet of Great Britain to Denis Dutry of the City of London, Eſq;

The Directors of the Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich, do hereby give Notice, That ſuch Perſons as are willing to ſerve them with Linnen of all ſorts, and alſo with Hats and Hoſe for the Penſioners there, may give in their Propoſals to them, ſeal'd up, on Saturday the 2d of June, at 10 of the Clock, in the ſaid Hoſpital, and in the mean time may be particularly informed of the Nature, Make and Goodneſs of the ſaid Goods, by the Steward there.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea-Company give Notice, that all Perſons poſſeſſed of any of the Company's Bonds which fall due on or before the 1ſt of July next, may have their Money for the ſame from time to time as they fall due; from which Times reſpectively the Intereſt on the ſaid Bonds will ceaſe and determine.
